

Chamber Musicians Host Free Program

The Colorado Springs Chamber Music Society, conducted by Michael Gibson, will present a musical production featuring members of the Air Force Academy and Norad Bands and community musicians at 4 p.m. Oct. 7 in the Armstrong Hall theatre of Colorado College.

The production will feature a guest appearance of the "Wizard From Smooch, Rolf Johnson.

The concert is free and open to the public. It is sponsored by the music department of Colorado College.

The program will encompass brass fanfares by William Walton and Eugene Bozza, a humorous "Brass Suite." followed by "Over The Pavements" by Charles Ives. "The Circus Polka" by Igor Stravinsky, composed for a young elephant named Bessie, will provide the finale for the first act.

A Walter Piston fanfare will open the second act, followed by the premier of the "Wizard," a creation of Rolf Johnson. Final will be the "Symphony in B Flat For Concert Band" by Paul Hindemith.

The Colorado Springs Chamber Music Society is a non-profit organization dedicated to presenting, free of charge, cultural music programs of varied repertoire to the public. Its goal is to enhance cultural opportunity in Colorado Springs.
